Sri T. Rangaswamy, Registrar of Cooperative, represents that as he is also Chief Marketing Officer, it has entailed additional work for him. He requests that he may be granted a duty allowance of Rs. 200 p.m. as has been sanctioned to Sri M.K. Appajappa, Controller of Civil Supplies & Sri J.B. Kallaradhya, Commissioner of Economic Development and Planning.

2. Sri J.B. Kallaradhya was appointed as Commr. of Ec. Devt. & Planning on his grade pay as Dy. Comr. plus a duty allowance of Rs. 200 p.m. – Vide Council Resolution dt 1.11.48 in the enclosed file. Cb. 164-48-112.

to Sri M. K. Appayappa, Controller of Civil Supplies and also to the Commr. of Income-Tax have been submd. separately in another connection. The reason for the grant of the duty allowance to these offices is that their work is of an arduous nature. In view of the representation made by the Registrar of Cooperative Societies that as Chief Marketing Officer additional work has entailed on him, the grant of a duty allowance of Rs. 200 p.m. as requested by him, is for orders.

8. The question of allowances to Officers of and above the rank of Asst. Comrs has been taken up for consideration separately. His case, however, stands on a different footing from those relating to the grant of allowances to the Commissioner for Planning, Controller of Civil Supplies; in the case of these two appointments, the work allotted to the officer is different from what he would normally be expected to do, and perhaps arduous. In the case of Comr for Rural Development (allowance not yet sanctioned), Comr. for Income Tax, and of the present Secy, in addition to the work normal to the post held, there are additions of other work; they are respectively, Co-ordination of different classes, Sales Tax, Marketing work as Chief marketing Officer.

CIRCULATION NOTE.

Subject: Representation of Sri T.Rangaswami, Registrar of Co-operative Societies.

Sri T.Rangaswamy, Registrar of Co-operative Societies, has reported that as he is also Chief Marketing Officer, the latter charge has entailed additional work for him and requests that he may be granted a duty allowance of Rs.200/- per mensem, as has been sanctioned to Sri M. K. Appajappa, Controller of Civil Supplies and Sri J.D. Mallaradhya, Commissioner of Economic Development and Planning.

As regards this request, the Chief Secretary to Government has noted as follows:

> "The question of allowances to officers of and above the rank of Assistant Commissioners has been taken up for consideration separately. This case, however, stands on a different footing from those relating to the grant of allowances to the Commissioner for Economic Development and Planning and the Controller of Civil Supplies; in the case of these two appointments, the work allotted to the Officer is different from what he would normally be expected to do and perhaps arduous. In the cases of Commissioner of Rural Development (allowance not yet sanctioned), Commissioner for Income Tax and in the present case, in addition to the work normal to the post held, there are substantial additions of other work; they are respectively, amelioration of depressed classes, Sales Tax and Marketing work as Chief Marketing Officer."

The Financial Secretary to Government has noted as follows:

> "While the above is correct, it is difficult to concede that the quantum of additional work in each of the three case is the same. The Sales Tax work and the amelioration of the Depressed Classes afford State wide work and that of the Chief Marketing Officer is not quite so extensive.
> In view of our present financial position, the grant of additional allowance would be the subject of more than usual anxious consideration."

The Chief Minister and the Dewan have ordered that this matter may be considered along with the general question of allowances.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that I took charge of the Department of Co-operation on 2nd August 1948. I am also the Chief Marketing Officer which naturally entails additional work. The work is out of my normal sphere of activities as Deputy Commissioner.

I learn that Government have been pleased to sanction a duty allowance of Rs.200/- to Sri M. K. Appajappa, B.A., Deputy Commissioner, who is posted to work as Controller of Civil Supplies in Mysore for the duties devolved upon him. On the same analogy, I request that Government may be pleased to sanction the same amount of allowance from the date of my taking
